Effective teaching and support of students from low socioeconomic status:
Resources for Australian higher education.

National Project Launch: Invitation
You are invited to attend the national launch of the project Effective Teaching and Support of students from low socioeconomic status backgrounds: Resources for Australian higher education. The project team, comprising Professor Marcia Devlin, Professor Sally Kift, Professor Karen Nelson, Ms Liz Smith and Dr Jade McKay, will introduce a new suite of resources for the sector related to effective teaching and support of students from low socioeconomic backgrounds.

Where: Deakin Melbourne City Centre, Level 3, 550 Bourke Street, Melbourne
When: Friday 14th September, 2012
Time: 10.00am – 3.00pm

Program:
9.30am – 10.00am Coffee and Tea on arrival
10.00am – 10.15am Welcome to country
10.15am – 10.30am Launch of project outcomes
10.30am – 12.15pm Overview of the deliverables
- Conceptions of LSES students in higher education
- Advice for leaders on policy and practice for LSES students
- Practical guidelines for university staff teaching LSES students
- Professional development around teaching LSES students
12.15pm – 1.30pm Lunch
1.30pm – 2.30pm Panel discussion (with questions from the floor)
2.30pm – 2.45pm Closing remarks
2.45pm – 3.00pm Close and afternoon tea

Please confirm your attendance by Friday 17 August 2012 by contacting the project manager at jade.mckay@deakin.edu.au or (03) 9244 6087.